When you need them... We will find them.

Providing the expertise to identify and find the best, most talented professionals to perfectly meet the needs of our clients... this is our mission.

In order to be successful in our business, we have fine-tuned the art of listening. The staff at CRTechnical has a combined experience-level of over 50 years. Our clients are highly-regarded companies and successful professionals. We seek only the best, most qualified candidates to maximize our client's success-track.

- 50 years of combined professional expertise.

The professional agents at CRTechnical are exceptionally experienced, providing a vast, multi-level knowledge-base of a myriad of business segments.

- Specializing in the "hard to find" person; unique individuals to upgrade skill-levels

Specific talent-sets are the mainstay of what CRTechnical can uncover. We seek and present only the people who are best qualified for the position.

- Corporate Culture Matching

In today's global economy and multi-lingual world, there are vast amounts of cultural differences which must be considered when matching professional expertise with working environments. The methodology at CRTechnical considers these elements when determining "the right fit".

- World-wide Search Network

From New York City to Buenos Aires, from San Francisco to Dubai, CRTechnical boasts one of the widest networks of exceptional businesses and the remarkable candidates to meet specific requirements.

Working with CRTechnical is an impactful experience for both clients and candidates. The reason centers on our overwhelming desire to make sure all companies and candidates we represent, simply, yet concisely, receive exactly what they want and need. We only seek the "best of the best" in their field of expertise. For over 30 years, the legacy of CRTechnical has been built with one success at a time...over and over again.

Whether you represent a company and have specific needs to fulfill, or you are a professional looking to expand your career, please contact us.
